Nominate now for the 2009 WA Education Awards

Western Australians are urged to nominate their favourite schools, teachers, school support staff and principals for the 2009 WA Education Awards.

Nominations for the awards which acknowledge outstanding schools and educators are now open and close on August 14.

The categories and prizes for 2009 are:

- Premier's Teacher of the Year – $25 000 (50% for professional learning)
- WA Principal of the Year – $25 000 (50% for professional learning)
- WA School Support Staff Member of the Year – $25 000 (50% for professional learning)
- WA Literacy School of the Year sponsored by Edith Cowan University – $15 000
- WA Numeracy School of the Year sponsored by Teachers Credit Union – $15 000
- WA Science School of the Year sponsored by ExxonMobil – $15 000.

Department of Education and Training Director General Sharyn O'Neill said the awards recognised Western Australia's best educators.

"Quality teachers, principals, support staff and schools are the basis of a great education," she said.

"The professional learning opportunities created by the awards and the cash prizes to schools benefit the whole school community and teachers are able to engage students in exciting lessons which enhance their learning.

"Give your child's teacher, school or principal the ultimate thank you by nominating them for an award."

Anyone interested in nominating a school or staff member for the WA Education Awards should talk with their school's principal.

Nomination kits are available from all public schools or using det.wa.edu.au/educationawards.
